

English in context

BOOKING A FLIGHT WITH A TRAVEL AGENCY

Fill in the gaps with a suitable word from the box below:

connecting	arrival	weighs	international	/	boarding pass	/	flying
leaves	carry-on	tips	aisle	board	return	/	depart
fee estimated	round	deal	airline	customs	delayed	/	delays
check	suitcase	baggage	following	airports	cost	schedule

Abby: Hi, I'd like to book a flight from Columbus, Ohio to Madrid, Spain. Can you help me find the best (1)?

Travel agent: Sure, no problem. Do you need a one-way ticket or (2) trip?

Abby: I will be staying for 10 months. Can I book the (3) flight now? I need to leave on August 17th and return on June 1st.

Travel agent: Yes, we can do that. Since this is an (4) flight, you will need to have your passport with you to (5) the plane.

Abby: Ok, that's fine; I already got it a month ago.

Travel agent: Do you prefer a window seat or an (6) seat?

Abby: I would like a window seat if that's possible.

Travel agent: Alright, the cheapest flight I could find (7) on August 17th at 2 p.m. You will have a (8) flight in Philadelphia. If